

Jonathan Brough

Author visits

Up to four talks or workshops per day to pupils, staff or parents, each tailored as required to exciting, accessible, curriculum-linked novels

Former prep school headteacher
£250 per day all-inclusive

aaha@jonathanbrough.net

Ideal for readers Y5 and above
Twentieth-century history
Problem solving with artefacts
Teamwork

Ideal for Y5-9 mature readers
An LGBTQ-friendly introduction to A Midsummer Night's Dream
Equality, diversity, Shakespeare

Ideal for readers Y2-Y6
The Solar System
Families
Europe

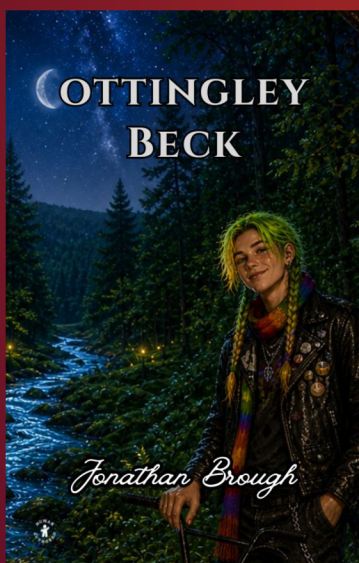

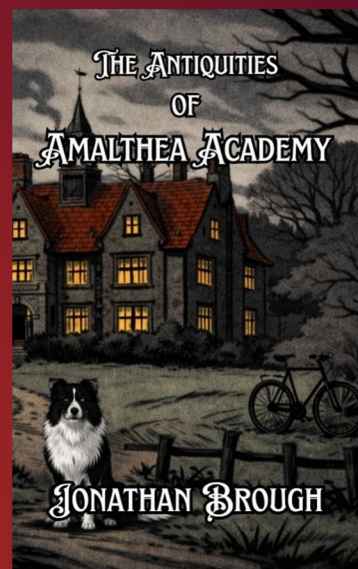

Now taking bookings through to July 2027

Ten-year-old comedian and astronomer Aahana Kapoor has two big problems: a holiday she doesn't want and a stepbrother she really didn't ask for. But when a lost teddy and some hot chocolate send her fifty years into the future, she discovers that time travel is no joke...
...and neither is family!

In this treasure hunt flavoured with a dash of the supernatural and a twist of Greek mythology, three friends need to save their school. Will Thumper, their loyal but lively border collie, help them to uncover artefacts like a Beatles single, a first edition of The Beano, a model theatre, some Beanie Babies and a Tamagotchi? If he does, how can that help them to achieve their goal?

Openly gay school leaver Sandy Chapman loves the magic of musical theatre. But when mysterious faerie forces begin interfering with the school play that he's helping to produce, how can he keep his vision untainted and ensure that everyone, including himself, remains genuine and true to themselves?

In 2023, after a hundred terms in education that included three headships, Jonathan retired from teaching. Since then, he has been working as an educational consultant including setting questions for ISEB English and on the IAPS Supporting Quality and Compliance team. He has an enhanced DBS check on the Update Service.

aaha@jonathanbrough.net